

+ART

Engaging Artists 2014: homelessness + poverty

More Art's 2014 Engaging Artists program was focused on homelessness and poverty. 14 artists deepened their understanding of socially engaged art through volunteer opportunities with one of the city's most vulnerable populations, the homeless. Through partnerships with the Artist Volunteer Center, Judson Memorial Church, Common Ground, The Bowery Mission, The Grand Central Neighborhood Social Services Corporation, and Art Start, More Art crafted a one-of-a-kind program that activates artists to become involved in art-making and supporting homeless individuals in New York City. The artist's' experience was enriched and contextualized through weekly workshops at Judson Memorial Church with professionals in the field as well as artists, curators, and activists. The 6 week program was also connected to their studio practice, encouraging the production of artwork that is informed by the residency, which culminated in an exhibition at Hot Woods Art Center in Red Hook, Brooklyn from March 28—April 19, 2015.

2014 artists.

Christina Sukhgian Houle

Anne Peabody

Emily Miller

David Wallace

Corinne Cappelletti

Anna Adler

Kate Weigel

Flavia Berindoague

Fanny Allié

Sue jeong Ka

Travis Fairclough

Anthony Heinz May

Jamie Marie Rose Grove

Julia A. Rooney